SUPERVISED RELEASE

Upon release from imprisonment, you will be on supervised release for a term of:

12 YEARS

MANDATORY CONDITIONS

1. You must not commit another federal, state or local crime.
2. You must not unlawfully possess a controlled substance.
3. You must refrain from any unlawful use of a controlled substance. You must submit to one drug test within 15 days of release from imprisonment and at least two periodic drug tests thereafter, as determined by the court.
  - The above drug testing condition is suspended, based on the court's determination that you pose a low risk of future substance abuse. (check if applicable)
4.  You must cooperate in the collection of DNA as directed by the probation officer. (check if applicable)
5.  You must comply with the requirements of the Sex Offender Registration and Notification Act (42 U.S.C. § 16901, et seq.) as directed by the probation officer, the Bureau of Prisons, or any state sex offender registration agency in the location where you reside, work, are a student, or were convicted of a qualifying offense. (check if applicable)
6.  You must participate in an approved program for domestic violence. (check if applicable)

You must comply with the standard conditions that have been adopted by this court as well as with any other conditions on the attached page.

DEFENDANT: MARK W. WOLFE
CASE NUMBER: 2:15-CR-208

STANDARD CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

As part of your supervised release, you must comply with the following standard conditions of supervision. These conditions are imposed because they establish the basic expectations for your behavior while on supervision and identify the minimum tools needed by probation officers to keep informed, report to the court about, and bring about improvements in your conduct and condition.

1. You must report to the probation office in the federal judicial district where you are authorized to reside within 72 hours of your release from imprisonment, unless the probation officer instructs you to report to a different probation office or within a different time frame.
2. After initially reporting to the probation office, you will receive instructions from the court or the probation officer about how and when you must report to the probation officer, and you must report to the probation officer as instructed.
3. You must not knowingly leave the federal judicial district where you are authorized to reside without first getting permission from the court or the probation officer.
4. You must answer truthfully the questions asked by your probation officer.
5. You must live at a place approved by the probation officer. If you plan to change where you live or anything about your living arrangements (such as the people you live with), you must notify the probation officer at least 10 days before the change. If notifying the probation officer in advance is not possible due to unanticipated circumstances, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours of becoming aware of a change or expected change.
6. You must allow the probation officer to visit you at any time at your home or elsewhere, and you must permit the probation officer to take any items prohibited by the conditions of your supervision that he or she observes in plain view.
7. You must work full time (at least 30 hours per week) at a lawful type of employment, unless the probation officer excuses you from doing so. If you do not have full-time employment you must try to find full-time employment, unless the probation officer excuses you from doing so. If you plan to change where you work or anything about your work (such as your position or your job responsibilities), you must notify the probation officer at least 10 days before the change. If notifying the probation officer at least 10 days in advance is not possible due to unanticipated circumstances, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours of becoming aware of a change or expected change.
8. You must not communicate or interact with someone you know is engaged in criminal activity. If you know someone has been convicted of a felony, you must not knowingly communicate or interact with that person without first getting the permission of the probation officer.
9. If you are arrested or questioned by a law enforcement officer, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours.
10. You must not own, possess, or have access to a firearm, ammunition, destructive device, or dangerous weapon (i.e., anything that was designed, or was modified for, the specific purpose of causing bodily injury or death to another person such as nunchakus or tasers).
11. You must not act or make any agreement with a law enforcement agency to act as a confidential human source or informant without first getting the permission of the court.
12. If the probation officer determines that you pose a risk to another person (including an organization), the probation officer may require you to notify the person about the risk and you must comply with that instruction. The probation officer may contact the person and confirm that you have notified the person about the risk.
13. You must follow the instructions of the probation officer related to the conditions of supervision.

U.S. Probation Office Use Only

A U.S. probation officer has instructed me on the conditions specified by the court and has provided me with a written copy of this judgment containing these conditions. DEFENDANT: MARK W. WOLFE

SPECIAL CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

1. The defendant shall participate in a sexual offender treatment program, to include a sex offender risk assessment, psycho-sexual evaluation and/or other evaluation as needed. The defendant shall also be subject to periodic polygraph examinations at the discretion and direction of the probation officer and at the defendant's expense, based on the probation officer's assessment of his ability to pay. The defendant shall follow the rules and regulations of the sex offender treatment program as approved by the probation office. The defendant shall sign all necessary authorization forms to release confidential information so that treatment providers, the probation officer, polygraph examiners, and others (as necessary) are allowed to communicate openly about the defendant's course of treatment, and progress in treatment. The defendant shall make a co-payment for sex offender treatment services not to exceed $25 per month, which is determined by the probation officer's assessment of his ability to pay.
2. The defendant's residence and employment shall be pre-approved by the probation officer, and must be in compliance with state and local law.
3. The defendant shall have no contact with any minors with the exception of the defendant's own children. The term contact extends to all forms of communication such as email, telephone, text, letter, and any other form of electronic communication. This provision does not encompass persons under age 18 such as ticket vendors, cashiers, or waiters whom the defendant must deal with in order to obtain normal commercial services. The defendant shall be prohibited from loitering where minors congregate, such as, but not limited to, playgrounds, arcades, amusement parks, recreation parks, sports events involving minors, shopping malls, and public swimming pools.
4. The defendant shall not view or possess material, images, videos or computer files containing sexually explicit conduct as defined by 18 U.S.C. §§ 2256(2)(A) and (B).
5. In consideration of 18 U.S.C. § 3583(d)(3), the defendant shall submit and/or surrender any media device, to which he has access and/or control, to a search based on reasonable suspicion of contraband or evidence of a violation of a condition of supervision. A media device is defined as, but not limited to, any device which is capable of accessing the internet, storing images, text, or other forms of electronic communication.
6. The defendant shall register, and keep the registration current, in each jurisdiction where the defendant resides, where he is an employee, and where he is a student. For initial registration purposes only, the defendant shall also register in the jurisdiction in which convicted, if such jurisdiction is different from the jurisdiction of residence (42:U.S.C. § 16913(a)). If the state of residence is not accepting sex offender registrations pursuant to the Sex Offender Registration and Notification Act (SORNA) and unable to accept the defendant's registration, the defendant must maintain contact with state registration authorities and his probation officer to determine when such registration can be accepted. The duty to register may continue after expiration of the defendant's federal supervision, and any existing duty to register under state law is not suspended and will remain in effect until the state implements the SORNA of 2006. If the defendant's supervision transfers to another federal district, his duty to register as required by SORNA shall be governed by that district's policy and laws of that state.
7. The defendant shall submit to the installation of software to monitor computer activities on any computer he is authorized to use at his expense. The software will record any and all activities on the defendant's computer. The software will be checked on a periodic basis. The defendant has no expectations of privacy regarding computer use or information stored on the computer and shall make other users of said computer aware of the monitoring software. The defendant understands that any information gathered by said software may be used against him in subsequent Court actions regarding his computer use and the conditions of supervision. Furthermore, the defendant shall comply with the rules set forth in the Computer and Internet Monitoring Agreement and the Computer and Internet Acceptable Use Agreement as adopted by the Southern District of Ohio.

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT FOR THE SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF OHIO
EASTERN DIVISION

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA :
: Case No: 2:15-CR-208
v. :
: CHIEF JUDGE SARGUS
MARK W. WOLFE :

AGREED ORDER

This matter is before the Court on the Government's request for restitution on behalf of the victims portrayed in the "Vicky," "Marineland," and "Lighthouse" series of child pornography images and videos that were unlawfully possessed and/or distributed by Defendant MARK W. WOLFE.

The United States and Defendant MARK W. WOLFE have reached an agreement that Title 18, United States Code, Section 2259 requires the Court to impose restitution for any offense under Chapter 110, which applies to the conviction of distribution of child pornography, in violation of Title 18, United States Code, Section 2252(a)(2) and (b)(1). There is no dispute between the parties that the defendant possessed and/or distributed images and videos depicting the subjects of the "Vicky," "Marineland," and "Lighthouse" child pornography series.

The parties further agree that the victims seeking restitution in this case are victims as defined in Section 2259, that is, individuals "harmed as a result of a commission of a crime under this chapter [the Sexual Exploitation and Other Abuse of Children Chapter of Title 18]."
See 18 U.S.C. § 2259(c).

IT IS THEREFORE AGREED by the parties that Defendant WOLFE, in accordance with the terms of the plea agreement entered into in this case, is liable for a portion of the total harm/losses sought by the victims in this case. Accordingly, Defendant WOLFE agrees to pay $5500 to the victim in the "Vicky" series of child pornography videos; $3500 to the victim in the "Marineland" series of child pornography images; and $3000 to the victim in the "Lighthouse" series of child pornography images, for a total of $12,000 in restitution. Restitution will be paid within 60 days of Defendant WOLFE's sentencing hearing, with any unpaid amounts still due at the time of his incarceration to be taken from any prison income that Defendant WOLFE receives and/or to be paid subsequent to his release from incarceration. Restitution shall be paid to the Clerk of the United States District Court for the Southern District of Ohio, and shall then be distributed to the victims' representatives: Carol L. Hepburn, in trust for "Vicky" and "Marineland," and to Sara J. Powell, in trust for "Lighthouse."

The undersigned counsel for the Government has further discussed this agreement with counsel for the victims, and represents to the Court that upon full payment in accordance with this Agreed Order, the victims agree that any restitution claims they may have in this matter against Defendant WOLFE are satisfied.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
